Be kind and tender to the Frog,
And do not call him names,
As 'Slimy skin,' or 'Polly-wog,'
Or likewise 'Ugly James,'
Or 'Gape-a-grin,' or 'Toad-gone-wrong,'
Or 'Billy Bandy-knees':
The Frog is justly sensitive
To epithets like these.
No animal will more repay
A treatment kind and fair;
At least so lonely people say
Who keep a frog (and, by the way,
They are extremely rare).

The Destruction of Sennacherib

Lord Byron

*The Assyrian came down like a wolf on the fold,
And his cohorts were gleaming in purple and gold;
And the sheen of their spears was like stars on the sea,
When the blue wave rolls nightly on deep Galilee.*

*Like the leaves of the forest when the Summer is
green,
That host with their banners at sunset were seen:
Like the leaves of the forest when Autumn hath
blown,
That host on the morrow lay withered and strown.*

*For the Angel of Death spread his wings on the blast,
And breathed in the face of the foe as he passed;
And the eyes of the sleepers waxed deadly and
chill,
And their hearts but once heaved, and forever grew still!*

*And there lay the steed with his nostril all wide,
But through it there rolled not the breath of his
pride;
And the foam of his gasping lay white on the turf,
And cold as the spray of the rock-beating surf.*

*And there lay the rider distorted and pale,
With the dew on his brow, and the rust on his mail,
And the tents were all silent, the banners alone,
The lances unlifted, the trumpet unblown.*

*And the widows of Ashur are loud in their wail,
And the idols are broke in the temple of Baal;
And the might of the Gentile, unsmote by the
sword,
Hath melted like snow in the glance of the Lord!*

Scripture

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” Genesis 1:27-28

And Isaac said to his father Abraham, “My father!” And he said, “Here am I, my son.” He said, “Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?” Abraham said, “God will provide for us the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So they went both of them together. Genesis 22:7-8

For unto us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” Isaiah 9:6

There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

History

Unit 1: Creation

Genesis 1: 1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the spirit of God was moving over the face of the water.

Unit 2: Mesopotamia

The earliest civilization began
In Mesopotamia's fertile farmland.
Euphrates and Tigris flowed richly to nourish
Sumerian cities, where culture did flourish.
Cuneiform was the world's first written word;
The Epic of Gilgamesh still can be heard.

Unit 3: The Old Kingdom of Egypt

In three thousand BC Pharaoh Menes united
All Egypt, where river Nile waters provided
Rich farmland to feed a great civilization;
The Old Kingdom pharaohs sought mummification.
Pyramids were these kings' burial tombs,
Their creed, carved in Hieroglyphs, filled every room.
For hundreds of years Egypt's pharaohs presided;
The middle kingdom saw their power divided.

Unit 4: Middle and New Kingdom of Egypt

The Hyksos ruled o'er the Egyptians a while,
Their weapons and chariots were the new style.
Thutmose the third and Hatshepsut commanded
An army, their fighting the kingdom expanded.
Ahmenhotep the fourth became Akhenaten,
But by Tutankhamen "one god" was forgotten.
New Kingdom pharaohs brought back Egypt's glory,
The Rosetta Stone helps us know Egypt's story.

Unit 5: The Patriarchs

The Lord spoke to Abram, and bid him to go
From Mesopotamia to a place He would show.
Abraham settled in Canaan afar,
His progeny numbered as so many stars.
Descended through Isaac, then Jacob, twelve tribes
Of Israel flourished, as the bible describes.

Unit 6: Israel in Egypt

Joseph to slavery in Egypt was sold,
The meaning of Pharaoh's dreams soon he foretold.
A famine drove Jacob and sons into Egypt;
There they found Joseph; their fortunes had flipped.
Four hundred years later God let Moses know
It was time to tell Pharaoh, "LET MY PEOPLE GO."
The Israelites journeyed to Canaan again;
The Commandments God gave them on Sinai count TEN.

Unit 7: The Israelite Kings

Joshua led the Jews in Canaan's conquest,
Chosen by God, Israel's Judges knew best.
Anointed by Samuel, Saul became king;
The giant Goliath fell to David's sling.
Solomon's wisdom kept Israel united;
After his death, the kingdom divided.

Unit 8: Assyria and Babylon

Under Sargon (the second) Assyria grew;
And they enslaved Israel in seven twenty-two.
Sennacherib and a great army descended
On Jerusalem's walls, where a plague their siege ended.
From Babylon, Nabopolassar fought well,
And in six-twelve BC the Assyrians fell.

Unit 9: The Babylonian Captivity and the Persian Empire

In five eighty-six BC Nebuchadnezzar
Destroyed the great Temple – Jerusalem's treasure.
Captive in Babylon, Israel grieved;
Its sufferings King Cyrus of Persia relieved.
The Empire of Persia stretched far and wide;
In this largest of Empires all faiths could abide.

Poetry I

Whole Duty of Children

by Robert Louis Stevenson

*A child should always say what's true
And speak when he is spoken to,
And behave mannerly at table;
At least as far as he is able.*

The Swing

By Robert Louis Stevenson

*How do you like to go up in a swing,
Up in the air so blue?
Oh, I do think it the pleasantest thing
Ever a child can do!*

*Up in the air and over the wall,
Till I can see so wide,
Rivers and trees and cattle and all
Over the countryside—*

*Till I look down on the garden green,
Down on the roof so brown—
Up in the air I go flying again,
Up in the air and down!*

Who Has Seen the Wind?

By Christina Rossetti

*Who has seen the wind?
Neither I nor you:
But when the leaves hang trembling,
The wind is passing through.*

*Who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I:
But when the trees bow down their heads,
The wind is passing by.*

The Frog

By Hilaire Belloc

*Be kind and tender to the Frog,
And do not call him names,
As 'Slimy skin,' or 'Polly-wog,'
Or likewise 'Ugly James,'
Or 'Gape-a-grin,' or 'Toad-gone-wrong,'
Or 'Billy Bandy-knees':
The Frog is justly sensitive
To epithets like these.
No animal will more repay
A treatment kind and fair;
At least so lonely people say
Who keep a frog (and, by the way,
They are extremely rare).*

Poetry II

Ozymandias

Percy Bysshe Shelley

*I met a traveller from an antique land,
Who said—"Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert. . . . Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk a shattered visage lies, whose frown,
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,*

*Tell that its sculptor well those passions read
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them, and the heart that fed;
And on the pedestal, these words appear:
My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;*

*Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!
Nothing beside remains. Round the decay
Of that colossal Wreck, boundless and bare
The lone and level sands stretch far away."*

The Destruction of Sennacherib

Lord Byron

*The Assyrian came down like a wolf on the fold,
And his cohorts were gleaming in purple and gold;
And the sheen of their spears was like stars on
the sea,
When the blue wave rolls nightly on deep Galilee.*

*Like the leaves of the forest when the Summer is
green,
That host with their banners at sunset were seen:
Like the leaves of the forest when Autumn hath
blown,
That host on the morrow lay withered and strown.*

*For the Angel of Death spread his wings on the blast,
And breathed in the face of the foe as he passed;
And the eyes of the sleepers waxed deadly and
chill,
And their hearts but once heaved, and forever grew still!*

*And there lay the steed with his nostril all wide,
But through it there rolled not the breath of his
pride;
And the foam of his gasping lay white on the turf,
And cold as the spray of the rock-beating surf.*

*And there lay the rider distorted and pale,
With the dew on his brow, and the rust on his mail,
And the tents were all silent, the banners alone,
The lances unlifted, the trumpet unblown.*

*And the widows of Ashur are loud in their wail,
And the idols are broke in the temple of Baal;
And the might of the Gentile, unsmote by the
sword,
Hath melted like snow in the glance of the Lord!*
